

501 Flask Silencers

Applications	This space-saving design is engineered to provide critical attenuation in small spaces. Best used for applications where ambient noise levels are relatively low. Excellent for use in enclosures, trailers, marine, or any application where space is extremely restricted.
Construction	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 2" thick compressed thermal/acoustical fiberglass packed shell• Bracket options include top mounted, bottom mounted, or none• Additional connections available
Finish	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Standard aluminized steel with high-temperature, oven-cured black paint• Additional colors and stainless steel available
Options	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 304L or 316L stainless steel• Dual inlet or custom inlet/outlet configurations• Thermal insulation blankets to suit all configurations available• Mounting brackets, gussets, and lifting lugs available

For questions or to request a quote, email gtexhaust.sales@nelsongp.com

GT-Silex⁺

A Nelson Global Company